DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Amendment

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In order to clarify that the claim includes two separate tolerance values, the first tolerance value with dimensions of time, and second tolerance value with dimensions of position, claim 27 had been rewritten as follows (underlining denotes additions to the claim):

27. The method of claim 25, wherein a position interval is determined if:
- the difference between:
 - the reception time determined from the satellite signals₁ and
 - the reception time determined from the time referenceexceeds a time tolerance value, and/or
 - the difference between a first position solution determined from:
 - a first position solution determined from a first satellite signal₁ and
 - a second position solution determined from a second satellite signalexceeds a distance tolerance value.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with W. Douglas Hahm on September 11, 2006.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claim(s) 25-36 is/are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regard to claims 25-34, the closest prior art, IDS document Spradley, IDS document Murphy, Ford, and Misra, do(es) not teach or make obvious the following limitation(s):

comparing reception times from a precision time reference with GPS time to determine that position should be determined if the time difference with within a specified tolerance.

In regard to claims 35-36, the closest prior art, IDS document Spradley, IDS document Murphy, Ford, and Misra, do(es) not teach or make obvious the following limitation(s):

comparing position solutions calculated using reception times from a precision time reference and GPS time, and determining whether or not to use the GPS time position if the difference between the two positions solutions does not exceed a specified tolerance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
